

MOUNTAIN VALLEY

3091 RAGTOWN ROAD HARRISONBURG, VA 22802

Mountain Valley is nestled against the Massanutten Mountain Range twenty minutes north of Harrisonburg. This facility offers delicious executive meals prepared on-site, cozy lodging, and a rich history. Accommodations are provided in a five room, fully restored, pre-civil war farm house. Additionally there are eight cabins located across from the main house that make for a one of a kind stay and providing all the comforts of home. The conference room seats up to 30 and comes equipped with free Wi-Fi, a projector, screen, audio, flip charts and white board. We also provide a facilitators tool kit, full of all the little extras you may need to run a successful meeting.

Additionally, through our partnership with Horizons Outdoor Learning Center and Camp Horizons, Mountain Valley guests can also participate in a wide variety of activities including high and low ropes, climbing wall, giant swing, archery, horseback, and even some high adventure trips like rock climbing and canopy tours with our sister company in West Virginia, NROCKS Outdoor Adventure. Finally, through our partnership with Horizons Consulting, we can help your organization manage growth, identify and address root causes of organizational challenges, and facilitate organizational change.
